Guy began his history of service in the United States Army. He received numerous awards for heroism during the Viet Nam conflict, to include multiple Purple Heart Awards for being wounded in combat. He retired from the Army in 1990 as a Master Aviator and continued his commitment to service as he began his next "career" as a Financial Advisor. He served as a member of the Newport News "Task Force for the Future" in 2000-2002. He has been a member of the Executive Committee of the Virginia Peninsula Chamber of Commerce (VPCC) for multiple appointments and was elected as the 2007 Chairman of the Board. He received the prestigious 2012 "Chairman's Award" from the Virginia Peninsula Chamber of Commerce for his outstanding Volunteer efforts to the business community. He has been a member of Rotary International for over 15 years and has proudly been named "Rotarian of the Year" multiple times by his Rotary Club of Oyster Point. He has worked with the Peninsula Alliance for Economic Development to foster youth oriented business programs. Guy currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Foodbank of the Virginia Peninsula.

Guy teaches classes at the Lifelong Learning Society at Christopher Newport University; mentors High School and College students; consults with future business leaders; conducts motivational speeches for business and civic organizations. He is passionate about the story behind our National Anthem and our Pledge of Allegiance and is recognized for his public presentations of these national treasures. He is known for his "Organizing Your Family Filing System" classes that help others understand all the legal and financial documents needed in today's busy world.

His mantra is "It is better to Prepare than to Repair" and his personal quote is "no matter how thin you slice it, there are always two sides."

Guy is a Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC®) and a Chartered Advisor for Senior Living (CASL®). He received his Bachelor's Degree in Business Management (Summa Cum Laude) from Saint Leo University. He has been a multiple year member of the prestigious Million Dollar Round Table. His Financial Services business focuses on family and business financial planning, retirement strategies to minimize taxes, and helping clients transfer wealth to future generations.
